Pass It On: What we know...What we want you to know From Fire Engineering Books & Videos

For his first book, Chief Billy Goldfeder, a 40-year fire service veteran, solicited insights and pearls of wisdom from our country's greatest firefighters, fire officers and emergency responders. The stories that make up this unprecedented collection share many perspectives of the emergency service experience and offer invaluable, often hard-won, lessons learned. Every firefighter, from probie to veteran, can find something to take away from these factual, real-life, first-hand stories, which offer a range of emotions?from wit to heartache and basic common sense.

Chief Goldfeder is donating 100% of his royalties equally to the Chief Ray Downey Scholarship and the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation. Every contributor fully supported the benevolent mission of this book.

Read this first: Introduction by Billy Goldfeder

I have been a lover of fire department–related books since I was a little kid. My parents told me that I had really little focus on anything else. My school grades always proved that. My firefighting interest has been there ever since I can remember, and it's true?I have very little interest in much else. My focus has always been narrow and limited to being a firefighter, related friends, a drummer, and (longer term) being a dad (and who knew, being a Poppie would become part of it). That was pretty much it...
