Editorial Review

From the Publisher

This new book builds upon the practical, managerial approach to marketing that is a trademark of Philip Kotler's renowned textbooks. Designed specifically with the hospitality and travel student in mind, it provides practical examples and applications that illustrate the major decisions marketing managers face in their efforts to balance objectives and resources against needs and opportunities in today's global marketplace. The authors bring a rich combination of both teaching and international consulting in the hospitality and travel industries to Kotler's proven framework of marketing principles.
