Alexander St. James believed Lord Hathaway's home was unoccupied when he broke in, so it's quite a surprise to stumble across Hathaway's daughter, Amelia. Abandoning his plans to recover the family heirloom his grandmother desperately wants back, Alex manages to slip out of the Hathaway home, stealing nothing but a kiss from Amelia. Dazzled by the kiss, Amelia is even more intrigued once she discovers her mystery thief is none other than the town's most scandalous rake. With this sexy tale, Wildes launches her new Notorious Bachelors trilogy. --John Charles
