The Secret of Chimneys By Agatha Christie

Agatha Christie: Features Scotland Yard, Superintendent Battle and "Bundle" Brent. From the inside front cover: The Scoundrel and The Lady. Anthony Cade was an international adventurer, a handsome, ironic blackguard on the run from the forces of the law. Virginia Revel was a beautiful, enchanting creature who moved with the greatest of charm in the highest levels of society. Yet both of them had a dark secret in their past, and danger shadowing their future. A vicious murder brought them together - then a cunning killer set about making sure that death would them part.... From the back cover: The Great Manor of Chimneys was a quiet and secluded estate where politicians discreetly settled affairs of state - and often affairs of quite a different kind were consummated. But all was changed when a pack of shocking love letters, a set of scandalous memoirs, and the bloody corpse of a famous man turned Chimneys into a place of murder and menace a place where the fate of a nation hung on a beautiful woman's innocence or guilt ...
