Cairns for the Climb By Lygon Stevens

Cairns for the Climb is a collection of writings from the journals of Lygon Stevens, a 20-year old college student and mountaineer who perished in an avalanche in January 2008 while climbing in southern Colorado. The writings reveal an astoundingly deep and intimate relationship with God, one that is without a doubt powerful and real. The writings are coupled with outstanding photos of Lygon's climbing expeditions in the US and Ecuador. Includes her last journal entry written three days prior to the avalanche. Inspiring for anyone.
