KIPPS: THE STORY OF A SIMPLE SOUL (The comedy and remarkable novel) Annotated story of Kipps (1941) in film and author's bibliography with his selected works By H.G. Wells

KIPPS also known as The Remarkable Mr. Kipps is the favorite novel from H. G. Wells, in which he turned from writing futuristic sci-fi to more down to earth accounts of British society of the 20th Century.

In Kipps, he draws on his own experiences of Britain's class-ridden social structure to provide an entertaining autobiographical tale. Director Carol Reed, who also made such classics as The Third Man and The Fallen Idol, sticks faithfully to the core of Wells' novel and produces a diverting comedy of Victorian manners.

This kindle edition is special to add the author's bibliography and his selected works with the adaptation in film in 1941 in UK.
