Editorial Review

Review

'In cash strapped times, a book that poses serious questions for senior management about the value of training might be welcome.' Dina Medland, FT

From the Back Cover

'This book is excellent. It stands head and shoulders above anything else I have read. If you want to be a better trainer and improve the impact you make, then I urge you to read this book today.'

Neil Mullarkey, writer, actor, comedian and business trainer

'I recommend that you buy this book if you are in the business of learning and development as you will learn the core fundamentals of what it takes to be a great business trainer.'

Gillian Secrett, CEO of The Møller Centre, Churchill College, University of Cambridge

'It's all here and it makes complete sense. Look no further if you want to improve the impact of your business training. Packed with punchy, practical how tos. Even if you implement only a fraction of the book you'll significantly improve the effectiveness of your training.'

Peter Honey, occupational psychologist, management trainer, conference speaker and co-creator of Learning Styles
